

ATHENAEUM 76

We are floating in the sunset of yesterday.

Our experiences and memories
unfolding to a new era.

200 years ago our country struggled to achieve independence, today we prepare for ours.

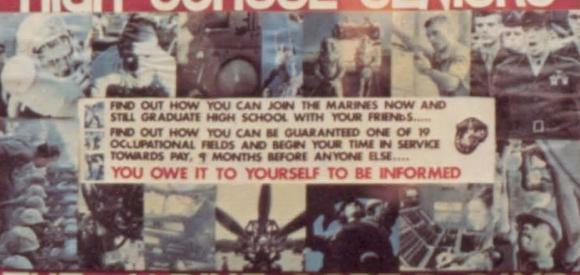

We have attempted to understand the history of our ancestors to accept the language of our families, and to perceive the evolution of our forefathers.

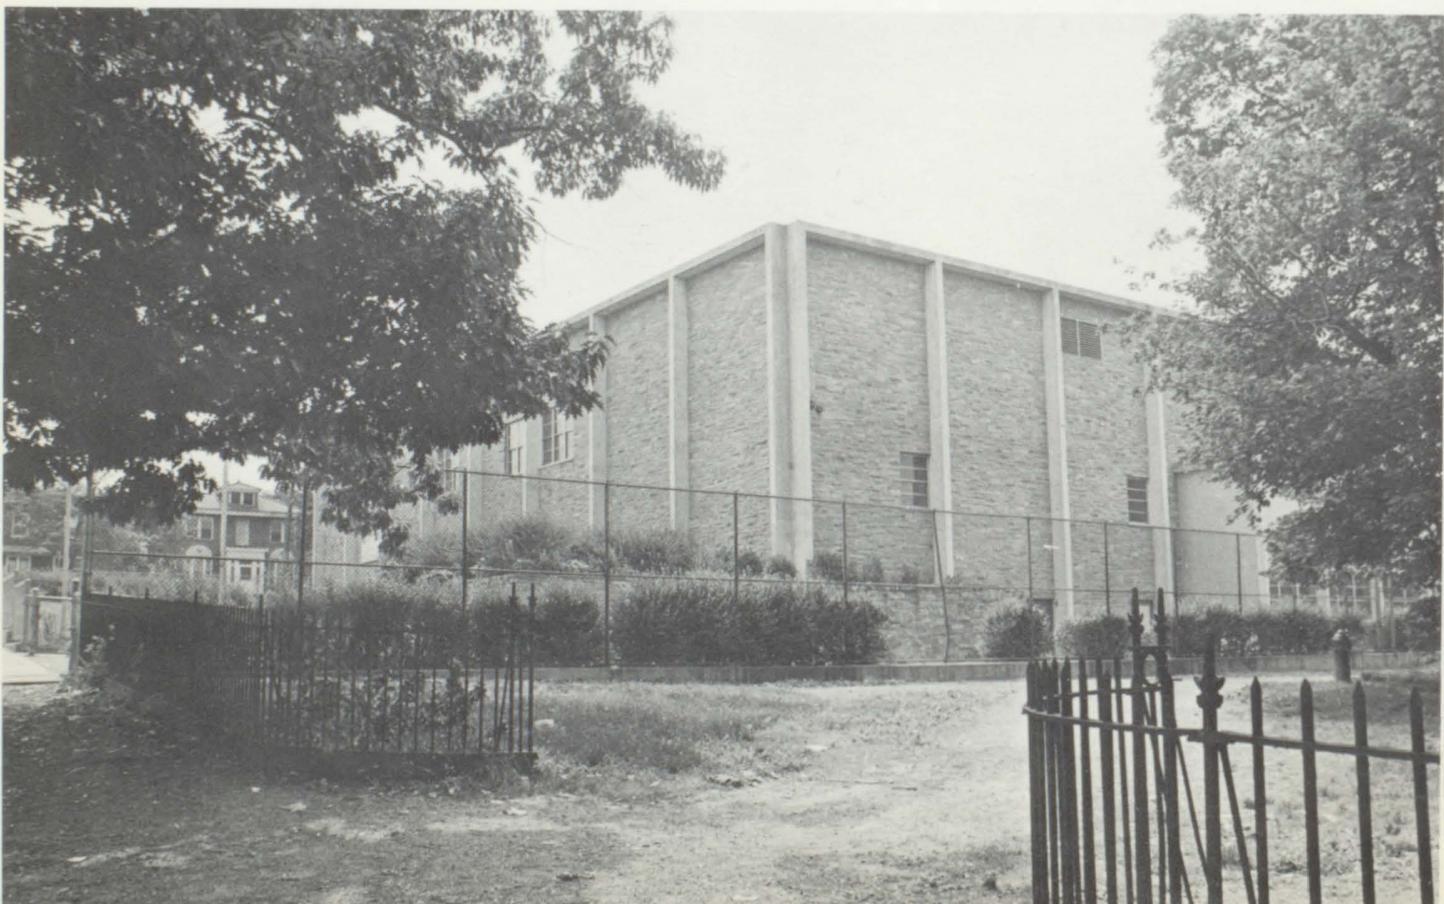

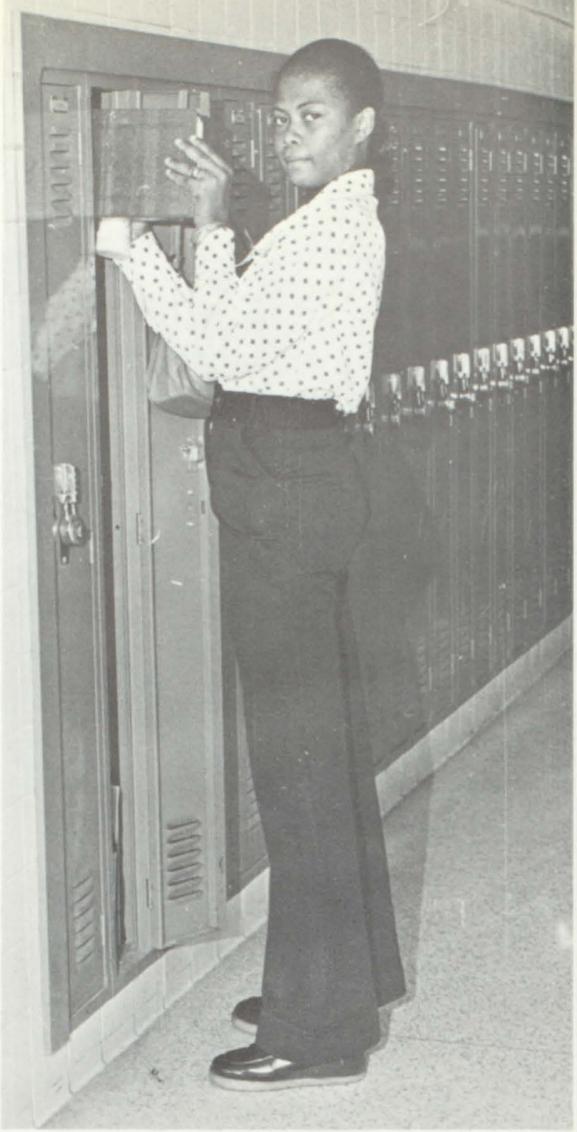

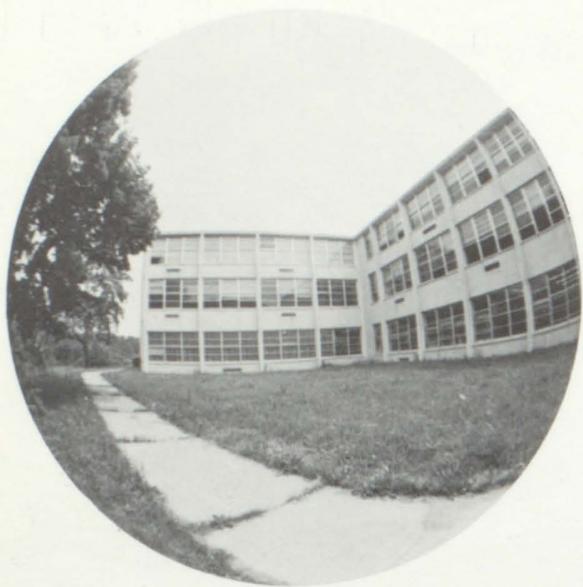

HIGH SCHOOL SENIORS

FIND OUT HOW YOU CAN JOIN THE MARINES NOW AND STILL GRADUATE HIGH SCHOOL WITH YOUR FRIENDS....
FIND OUT HOW YOU CAN BE GUARANTEED ONE OF 19 OCCUPATIONAL FIELDS AND BEGIN YOUR TIME IN SERVICE TOWARDS PAY, 9 MONTHS BEFORE ANYONE ELSE....
YOU OWE IT TO YOURSELF TO BE INFORMED

THE MARINE CORPS SAYS
"STAY IN SCHOOL"

Now we stand on the foundation of history, a proud people, with a great love for our school, our flag, and our country.

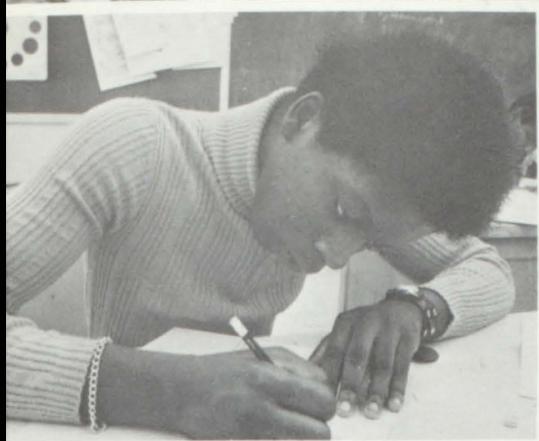

We realize while our freedom was declared two centuries ago, Barringer is 138 years old, and though we have transcended archaic standards we have upheld our dateless traditions.

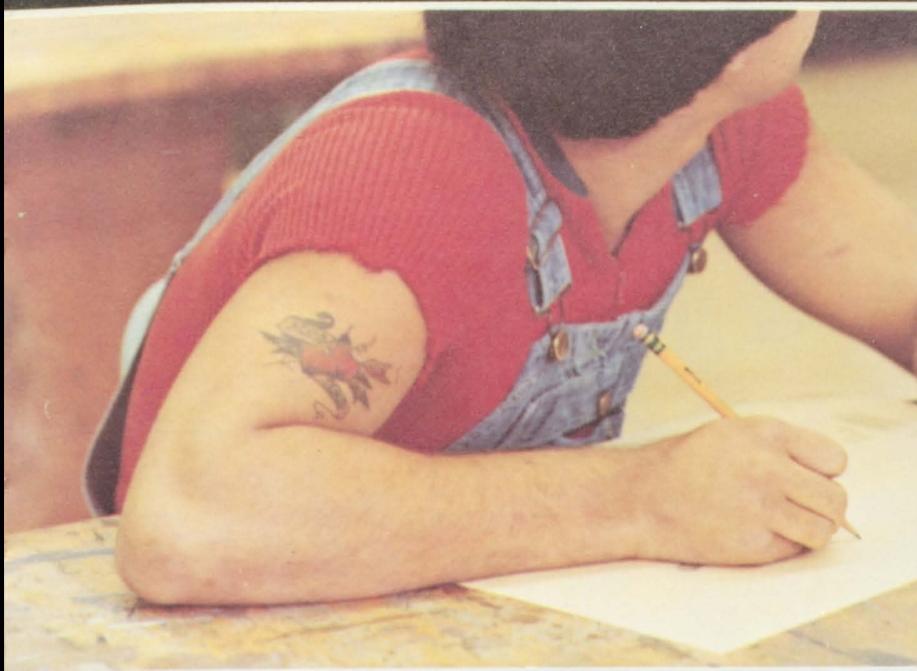

We are poised to accept our niche in society, our individual personalities have been prepared for the challenge ahead.

Diverting our sight from antiquity, our destiny becomes suddenly apparent, we must convey the tales of our heritage to our descendants.

And carry on the declaration a united society, and a

that we are committed to free and independent country.

The Unanimous Declaration of the Thirteen United States of America.

The years spent in high school are short when we consider the span of human life. But, their worth is not measured in time. It is measured in the quality of the experience.

We at Barringer, mindful of this, and mindful that your tommorows would be an extension of your todays with us, have tried to provide you with a wealth of maturing, mind opening, and personality enriching experiences. Hopefully, you have gained from the considerable knowledge, an array of skills, and a large measure of respect for your fellow man. Hopefully, too, these experiences will serve you well and guide you in making your contribution to our common tommorrow.

Defending champion Barringer, sparked by a strong rushing game led by Marc Cray, scored its 15th consecutive victory yesterday by defeating Newark City League rival Vailsburg, 18-0, at Schools Stadium.

Barringer, ranked 12th in the state by The Star-Ledger, ran its unscorched-upon streak to 11 quarters.

Cray, who rushed for 106 of the 290 yards the winners gained on the ground, scored the first touchdown on a two-yard plunge following a blocked punt by Cedric Shaw. Shaw blocked Pat Fagan's attempt at the nine and fell on the ball at the two.

In the third quarter, after the Vailsburg kickoff, Barringer took four plays to score again. Cray ran 18 yards before quarterback Charlie White threw 47 yards to George Persons for a 12-0 lead.

After a Vailsburg punt later in the quarter, Barringer marched 61 yards to the Vailsburg two before losing the ball on downs. But Vailsburg fumbled on its nine and Barringer's Juan Diaz recovered. Cray rushed seven yards and Covin Baumgardner carried the final two for the TD.

Barringer gained 89 yards passing as White connected on four of 12 throws. White also ran 11 times for 55 yards and Shaw carried the same amount for 38 yards. Fagan was accurate on five of 18 passes for Vailsburg's 93 passing yards. But the losers managed just 64 yards rushing.

Malcolm Jones raced 65 yards with a punt return for one touchdown and Maxwell White dashed 63 yards from scrimmage for another yesterday as Shabazz scored its second consecutive victory, a 13-0 decision over winless Newark City League rival Central at Untermann Field.

Early in the second period, Jones received a punt on the Shabazz 35-yard line, then followed blockers around the left side before moving into the clear. Later in the period, a Shabazz scoring opportunity was erased when Central's Mike Patterson intercepted a pass in his end zone.

Irvington (7-1) vs. Barringer (7-4-1) at Schools Stadium: The best Irvington football team in many years features Bob Kennedy at quarterback and runners Stan Es, Charlie Kane and Bob Vorhes, as well as two-way Tom Lisinichka and Kane, doubling at cornerback. Newark school attacks hard with Cedric Shaw, Marcy and Rich Alston, and has quality defenders in Richard and Byron McMillan. Irvington 14-8.

THE OCEAN

Limpid Pools of azure,
Reaching out for me,
Grasping me
Encompassing me
With the beauty of simplicity.

In return for love,
I reach out to him.
And I must go
For he shall only
Call once.
Except for his wants,
And for his needs
But not to give no'r
To receive,
He is selfish.
Swallowing me
Into his image.

In Memory of Anthony Meeks and Janice Davis.

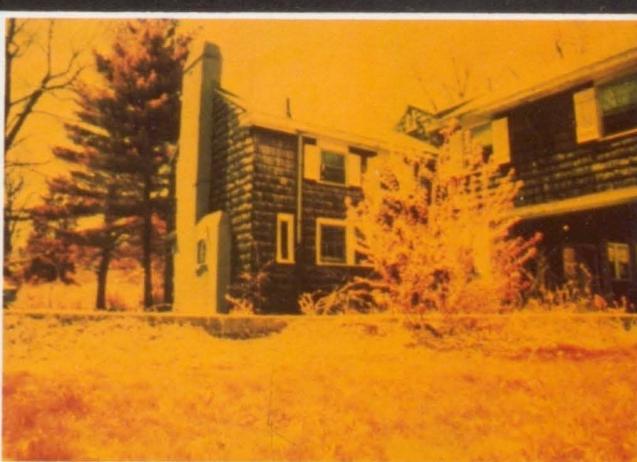

In the sunset of yesterday
An empty chair
Sits in the dawn of tomorrow
Where no one waits,
But sadly mourns.
And speaking softly
To the absence of Life.

Blazing across our new frontier

covered by shadows of a different time

Our scope is only limited by our imagination.

Our imagination as full
as our awareness.

Indecision confuses us, our bearings temporarily adrift

Echoes of our parents guiding words haunt us, knowledge collected from our teachers diverts us.

And it is this spirit in all Barringerites which makes us proud to say,
"We are from the big blue!"

We must align our course, take aim, proceed
slowly on a path
of our choice

With the understanding
that we too,
like our
forefathers,
are pioneers
of a new generation.

And so as the distant flow of the
fife and rapping
of the drum fades,
silencing the bicentennial, our alma mater will stand tall.

Our school has grown with the shiny new facade, but still carries in the essence of the turbulent years that founded Hillside.
